

PREMIO
RAFFAELE MASTO
A FAVORE DELL'ATTIVISMO CIVICO IN AFRICA

Prize announced by the Amani Foundation and sponsored by the "Amici di Raffa" Committee

1) Purpose of the call

The prize wants to provide visibility and support to one or more members of the civil society in Africa, identified via this announcement: that is, people who have stood out for their civic engagement regardless of their jobs or the environment in which they operate. They can be activists, intellectuals, students, journalists, citizen journalists, bloggers, environmentalists, trade unionists, artists... anyone who has shown audacity, talent, courage, generosity, moral integrity and dedication towards the oppressed. The application cannot be spontaneous, it must be submitted by an institution/organization/ committee /NGO who must grant for the candidate.

2) Recipients of the announcement

The prize is only for African citizens who live and work in Africa. Their social/political/cultural activity must have been carried out for at least the past three years and must be documented.

3) Prize amount

Set up by the crowdfunding called "Premio Raffaele Masto" and by private donations, the prize offers 2.500 euros to each of two winners (a woman and a man), in addition to an invitation to Italy in order to give them visibility. Visa, flight tickets, food and accommodation expenses will be covered by the "Amici di Raffa" Committee, as well as the organization of the public event during which the prize will be awarded.
